This book (in English) was one of the favorites of my best friend's little girl for years, and the simple premise of "be careful what you get yourself into" amuses even my grown friends. The story of the mouse who wants a cookie (which requires a glass of milk, which calls for ...) and can't stop there, is a familiar plot presented in a fresh way with fun illustrations. The Spanish translation has a very natural feel. Este libro (en su versión en inglés) era uno de los favoritos de la hijita de una amiga durante unos años, y su base sencillo de "cuidado de en que te metes" divierte aún a mis amigos ya grandes. El cuento del ratón que quiere galletita (que entonces requerirá un vaso de leche, y por eso un ...) y no se puede quedar con esa, es un argumento conocido, presentado de manera refrescante con dibujos divertidos. La traducción al español tiene gracia igual a la versión en inglés, con lenguaje natural.

I was delighted to find this translation, as I had told my boyfriend (now my husband) about it on an early date, and ever after he persisted in asking, "How did that story go? The one about the little mouse?" whenever I tried to get him to stop being fresh. :) A delightful book.-----Este libro (en su versión en inglés) era uno de los favoritos de la hijita de una amiga durante unos años, y su base sencilla de "cuidado de en que te metes" divierte aún a mis amigos ya grandes. Me alegré al encontrarlo traducido al español, dado que había mencionado el cuento a mi novio (hoy, esposo) y siempre entonces me decía, -- ¿Cómo era el cuento del ratoncito? -- cuando se sentía atrevido. Un libro encantador.

I got the name of this book off of a recommended reading list for babies before they're even born. I'm fluent in Spanish, so pronunciation wasn't difficult at all. It has a cute story line, and my little guy was kicking like crazy as soon as I started reading in Spanish. (Neither my husband nor I are of an ethnicity where the baby hears Spanish very often.) However, the change of dialect made him very active which of course, was fun for me as well. All in all, a great little story to read whether in Spanish or English.

I have a nephew that is growing up in a bilingual family. I love to get him books in both English and Spanish versions. This was one of my favorites as a kid and it doesn't lose any of its greatness in translation.

My kindergarten students as well as me love Laura Numeroff books. My students learned about sequence, characters and important details in all her stories. Thank you Laura for publishing this book series in Spanish.

Este libro se lo leemos a mi nene que tiene 2.5 años. Se queda atento todo el libro. El largo del libro es suficiente para su edad.

It wasn't hard cover as I expected, but nevertheless, for a used book it was in great condition. Great book too! Made for a wonderful gift for my Spanish teacher.

My 3 year old granddaughter love it. Very good Spanish. I am always searching for books like these, specially ones that are not in two languages per page.
