This is an amazing book that tackles every question concerning dating, love, sex, and how to see these things in light of our faith in Christ and His grace. Tracy is authentic and remains true to the word of God. This book is the best I've read on this topic and is a game changer for both guys and girls!

From the very first sentence this book jumps right into the questions every young woman and man is thinking. Tracy candidly speaks biblical truths while weaving guy/girl thoughts throughout the book. We get to hear inside guy minds as they share their hearts! Every age will LOVE this book!

I have sat with Tracy many times are on her side porch talking about all kinds of things! I would leave thinking "I wish all women could experience a friendship with Tracy and glean from her wisdom"! Now you can! As your reading this book you will feel like you are with her on the porch. You will experience her personality, but more than that, you will feel loved, accepted, and free!

Tracy answers so many questions young adults have today about their faith, their desires and their journey in sexuality. You may be surprised by what you read. Tracy is authentic and refreshing in her approach to help others!

Incredible book! Can't wait to share it with the teenagers of Liberty Christian School! I'm hoping every parent will buy it and empower their children with the information they need to morally succeed in this time of life!

Such a great read and very practical. A breath of fresh air in a culture that is filled with smog. Thanks for pouring your heart into this Tracy. I can't wait to share this with others and see lives changed for the better!

The best part was the last chapter that dives into who we are in Christ. Lots of good insights to chew on and digest. May have to read again to get it all. Well written and easy to follow. Great format.

I am 49 yrs old and read this book from two points of view: how I would talk with my daughter about sex and how a young woman might receive this information as a reader. Overall, it is an excellent resource grounded in truth, grace and reality. I love Tracy's style of writing that is approachable, easy to read, practical and relevant. You can truly feel her love for the women she is writing to. I appreciated her directness and willingness to approach hard topics like homosexuality and pornography (and more!) giving Biblical based opinions mixed with loving guidance. This book is clearly written for the young woman who's heart is already dedicated to the Lord's. But its written in a way that can stretch the more mature Christian, or encourage and challenge the newer/spiritually younger girl. The entire book is an easy read, but chapter 6 might be a bit heavy for a young girl to process. I 100% agree with her presentation of the "New Covenant" and I too found this message of freedom in my relationship with Christ after years of feeling distant from God every time I didn't "do enough" to earn His favor. Yet, I was in my 30's and had walked with the Lord a long time to finally understand all this. It is obvious this message has been life-changing for Tracy and I fully appreciate her desire to share it. I hope that every reader of the book will read through this chapter (and even come back to it again, as it is meaty!) and seek to process the truths she shares. I plan to give copies of this book to my nieces and young ladies who are graduating high school. It is a perfect gift for a 15-20 yr old (sadly sooner is better as these girls face this stuff much earlier in life!) And I plan to keep a copy for my 5 yr old daughter and use it personally as a resource in guiding our discussions as she grows up. If only I had this book when I was young...Well done Tracy. Thank you for sharing your gift and your heart.
