Customer Reviews

I purchased the expanded edition and I'm so happy I purchased this for a little child. My Baptism book is truly wonderful. Never mind giving away things that could last for a few months or so or even a day, this will last for years. And what a beautiful gift you would be giving, because as its title says, it's about sharing to a child the knowledge of God's love as a starting point of his/her faith. The book has subtitles: *Me. This section points to the child's self in relation to God*My Baptism. It contains verses and excerpts from the bible, ending in prayer*A Child of God. More verses, Psalms, bible excerpts*God*Jesus*God's Holy Spirit*Blessings I love that it touches on Easter, alongside Christmas, which is actually the focal point of the Christian faith. You might want to purchase this edition because it's bigger, and probably the letters look bolder than on the smaller book. Also, it comes with a baby blue ribbon marker. It's a plus, too that the pages seem thicker than the average. The illustrations are very, very nice, very warm and appealing. But I'm afraid it does not appeal to the children I read to, they just take quick glances and listen more than look. I think D. Kolanovic could make it more interesting by making the beautiful colors a bit more intense, because the figures are a little too hard to figure out, they look hardly distinguishable and too blended out that they're lost in the whole picture. The choice of colors and their combination are excellent, also gradation is very pure, but all too pale and blurry. In general, the book is beautiful, and for parents with children who are already baptized as babies, it's never really too late to have this book, it will still serve nicely, and even more so with older children who can understand better with their present age.

This is really a remarkable little book, perfect for baptism. This is one of those "all good" things . . . and we thank the author and publisher for making this book available. Highly recommend!

It was a perfect baptism gift. They loved it. Space to write the date they were baptized and the God Parents names. Great keepsake.

I gave this as a gift to my great nephew on his baptism. It is a great keepsake book.

This is the cutest book ever and I am so excited to give this as a baptism gift!

Great book. Would get it again for a Baptismal gift.

Same as Hallmark, but better price.

The book isn't exactly what I thought it would be. But, turned out to be great anyway. My son and daughter in law were very pleased with the book.
