These are really handy for learning Korean vocabulary. I whip them out when I'm walking, standing in line, or whenever I have a few minutes in between tasks really. I like that each word has 4 other related words on the same flashcard, it makes for building links which helps me to remember words more easily. However, the sample sentences are terrible. Not that I they're grammatically incorrect or anything (that I know of, I'm only a beginner ^^), but the wording of the sentences just seems forced and unnatural, and they use English phrases, as in, instead of a sentence from Korean that they translate into English, it's an English phrase translated into Korean. As a language learner this really irks me. Especially since I learn better when words are put into context. Other than that though, I really like this set and would recommend.

Tuttle always has such wonderful products, and these flashcards are no different. They are easy to read and are well organized. They give you sample sentences along with the words and teach you word order and such. I'm an adult [obviously] and I use these because I'm teaching myself Korean and these have been an invaluable tool in my learning process. Really recommend these for anyone trying to learn or teach Korean.

Love these flashcards. I had already begun learning the Korean language once I received these cards and they have been a great help. Especially the corresponding audio so I know the proper sound, and pronunciation. I love that there are sentences that show proper usage of the words presented and feel this has been such a helpful way to learn the language. Would definitely suggest learning the alphabet front ways and back ways and feel once you get a true grip on the alphabet and proper pronunciation of the alphabet first you will find these cards even more helpful.

Comes with a ring to link cards on as you choose to add them. Many often used words and the first word on the card usually describes the others, such as body part then 4 body parts. Helpful for practice.

These are very well made! I love the whole box set up with the ring and four stacks of cards! These will be handy for at home and when I'm out and about! I recommend these to all my fellow Korean learners! :)

These flashcards are excellent. They are durable and have lots of good vocabulary! Not only does the card have the vocabulary word translation on the other side, but it also has similar/related words to learn. Highly recommend these cards to anyone looking to increase their Korean vocabulary!

Wish the ring was completely round so it could loop around, but still love it great product. Audio CD works great!

Love them! Got a set for my husband to use when he is on travel. Good learning tool. Purchased another set for my niece for her birthday.
