Customer Reviews

Great book for kids. My daughter enjoyed it immensely! Will definitely be looking for more like it. Only problem I have is that since my daughter has discovered the children's books, I have a hard time keeping her off my Kindle Fire! I guess that's a good thing, though. :o)

This story explains the reason Jesus came to earth, He was born, died on a cross for our sins, then arose again so we may have eternal life! The authors do an excellent job in getting message across that Jesus is the only way to heaven. Young children learning how to read will love this book.

If you have an emerging reader, you'll definitely want to take a look at Zonderkidz's latest offerings in "I Can Read!" books, including "Jesus Saves the World." "I Can Read!" books were first published in 1957 and feature a scale of difficulty from "shared reading" to "advanced reading." Following this traditional example, "Jesus Saves the World" falls into the "shared reading" category, and is ideal for children just learning to read, but who need parental help. With colorful, cartoon-like illustrations by Kelly Pulley (based on the popular

This easy to read book is a fun read and provides an excellent teachable moment for parents to talk to their children about fear, faith in the Lord, and remaining faithful to Him as well, especially during hard times when Christians are being more and more persecuted. Whether you just want your child to know Bible stories from a literary point of view or to read an accurate account based on Biblical history, this book provides the story in words most children can understand.

I am all about the "learning to read" books and this one being about Jesus makes it that much better!!! She is reading on her own now so this level is really easy for her so I looked into the next level ones about Jesus, but I didn't like the artwork in those. Not as cute and child like. She is only 5 so I like books with lots of colorful, animated artwork. But these are great!

My son read this book during service at church. He was not interested in listening to the pastor preach but found another way to spend a little time with Jesus, reading this book on my kindle. It is also on the accelerated reader list and I will have him use the read as part of his testing at school.

This was very similar to a book I've read my son called "the story of Jesus." But it added information the other book didn't have, so it was a great way to reinforce who Jesus is to my son. Very good for little kids.

A bit short but the art is charming. I guess this review is pretty short too. It is good. Great for when the kids are tired and you trying to get a story that gets to the point.
