According To Promise: Spurgeon Classic Series, Book 1

Synopsis

In According to Promise, Spurgeon teaches the biblical method for claiming the promises of God. Learn who you are in Christ Jesus, the "seed" to whom the promise was made. Learn what to expect from God and how to approach him in prayer with your promises in hand, to respectfully remind him of his word. Also included is a topical reference containing hundreds of promises for you to mediate, memorize, and claim as your own in prayer. Promises of God are your faith. It gives you substance to stand upon, fully knowing that what God promised, he will perform. Our heavenly father is not our personal genie who grants every greedy wish we request. But, he is a rewarder of those who diligently seek him in prayer. Be prepared to energize your prayer life like never before. Start receiving from God today.

"Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise. But as then he that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, even so it is now." Galatians 4:28,29 This is in the second chapter, but is like an introduction of what the book is about-comparing the Christian's life with the unbeliever. This is a great book. I have never read any of Spurgeon's books before, just heard or read quotes here and there. I highly recommend it. I intend to buy more of Spurgeon's books. Thank you for putting it in e-book form.

This has been different than what I was expecting. I was initially thinking this was going to speak about the future promises of the believer. Instead it has been speaking more about the future promises but how they differ from those of the non-believer. How we can be assured over and over because of the promises that Christ has made to and for us. Still a good solid read. Probably the best point of the book: Christian act and live in a manner according to God's promises that He has made known throughout the ages through His divine word. When I pray, I should pray expecting God to answer because I'm driving to do His will and He is totally committed to doing His own will. We as believers need to be more bold in prayers, evangelizing, studying, reading, discipling, fighting sin, etc. all because God has promised all of these to bear abiding fruit. Instead we show a lack of faith and trust in the God that we serve, by showing that He is not worthy of our trust by not living according to His promise."Even as first of all God made Adam, so must He make us over again, or else we can never bear His image, nor behold His glory"" He (Paul) treated God as He should be treated, namely, with unquestioning confidence. An upright man likes to be trusted; it would grieve him if he saw that He was regarded with suspicion."

Not that C.H.Spurgeon needs my endorsement, but if you haven't read this you've missed a good one.

Thrilled to read this 'old' book that speaks to how God deals with His children and loves them by giving and fulfilling promises.

I give this four stars because it's a bit dry at times and the language is sometimes difficult. That's a reflection on me, not Mr. Spurgeon, which makes it worth reading.

Reminds us that the promises God made will be kept. Some are still future answers. Whether for Israel or Christians it will happen

Excellent reading for Spiritual growth. Would be great to be used and discussed in a group of believers. Highly recommend .
