Customer Reviews

The "Bible" is beautiful. The cover is nice; the pages have gold edging. The illustrations are very nice. However, it is not so much a bible as a story book. The Bible is condensed into a collection of children's stories and is a little young for my son. I would say it was more suitable for a pre-K or Kindergarten child. I was expecting a little more Bible and a little less storybook. Otherwise, a perfectly fine book.

Our parish received a free copy of this from the publisher. When our committee met to discuss what book to purchase for the kids receiving their First Communion, our entire group was very impressed with this book. After discussing several options, we decided to order this for all the kids. The book includes an introductory letter from Fr. Benedict Groeschel which starts: "Dear Child, Today is a very special day. Your whole family is filled with happiness for you, and so am I. We are happy because you will be given a great gift today, one that is better than anything you could get on your birthday or even on Christmas. You will be given the gift of meeting Jesus in a very special way." The entire letter continues in this same beautiful tone. There are 26 Bible stories from the New Testament starting with the Annunciation and ending with the Ascension. All of them are written so that children can understand and learn from them. If you want to read the actual Bible passages that the stories are taken from, the Bible references are included. Also, each story is beautifully illustrated. I am 65 and I still have my First Communion prayer book, and I think this book would make a wonderful keepsake for any child. Be sure and fill out the page with their name, date and your name.

This is a really nice little book for a child making First Communion. Cover is very nice, pictures and print great. However, my copy was a bit squashed on the tips of the cover and a small part was coming unglued at the inside seam. Not bad enough to send back, but not perfect. Could be packaged better for shipping. Just shipped in an envelope.

It was a beautiful First Communion gift for our 8 year old granddaughter/goddaughter, simple with beautiful artwork and a place in the front to acknowledge the date, who it was for and from. She really loved it. It is written for younger children so if you are considering this for anyone older than 10 it may not be as well received.

It is a pretty book with great pictures but it is NOT a Bible. It is a book with a few bible stories in it. Wish I had known this before I ordered it.

The middle pages were glued together at the bottom and could not be turned without tearing each page. Very poor QC if any at all. This book was to be a communion gift for my granddaughter but I had to return it. I'm not a happy camper.

perfect for what we were looking for. Well made and well illustrated. The book simplifies the Bible stories for young children.

Nice bible; not a thick book, but nice photos and stories for young children and nice memento of 1st communion.
