Customer Reviews

I came out of a pseudo-Christian cult. I idolized teachers and preachers of the cult, but didn't know God. This book started teaching about the ten commandments of God, which I didn't know or understand, being raised in cult. I learned that I was living in sin, didn't know God and was going to hell. A real wake-up call. God have mercy on me! I realized that I needed a Savior, to deliver me from the just judgment and righteous wrath of God. I started to get to know God by reading the Bible. I started to awakening to righteousness. This book started by stepped me simply through the basics of the Bible and helped me understand why I need God, why the law of God is good, and how the law brings me to the foot of the cross begging for the blood of Jesus Christ to cleanse me of my sins. This is a book that brings people to Christ by giving an understanding of God's will for us to obey Him, and then by elaborating on the commandments of God. It profoundly changed the way I think of God. I started reading the Bible from a Messianic Jew perspective. I have given the book and told my other ex-cult friends about this book and they have found it helpful. Three of my friends now have left the cult and are in fellowship with Christians now. The book is broken into easy to read chapters. They have scripture, a solid lesson that is relevant to our lives, anecdotes and thankfully humor to make the truth easier to swallow.
