Customer Reviews

This fun book has so many fun ideas to help get my kids off of their devices and playing outside! The photos and the illustrations are both very well done, my kids will sit for hours reading through the book and planning our outdoor activities. The first thing we are working on is the Tyrannosaurus garden that is all contained in an old car tire. We emptied the remainder of a bag of potting soil into it and then added small ferns and dollar store plastic dinosaurs. Very fun! The ice mobile looks really interesting, and I also love the idea of using thrift store teacups as containers for a fun windowsill garden.
